Helix Nebula and the Use of Commercial Cloud Services ^[1]

Date:

Wednesday, 24 June, 2015 (All day) to Friday, 26 June, 2015 (All day)

Location:

eg. CERN Building 31, IT Auditorium ^[2]

CERN is investigating how to use commercial cloud services to supplement the IT services that support the lab's scientific programme. This is being performed in collaboration with other research organisations such as ESA and EMBL, in the context of the "Helix Nebula Initiative" together with European commercial cloud service providers.
